

RAM NOMULA
CE, Moser Baer Entertainment Services

Mr. Ram Nomula is the Chief Executive of Media & Entertainment Services at Moser Baer. In this position, he provides strategic leadership to the division's media mastering, authoring, replication and packaging services.

Prior to this, he was associated with Technicolor / Thomson, the world's largest digital 'end to end' service provider for media & entertainment companies. Ram's most recent position was Country Manager, India (Strategy and Acquisitions for Services SBU) and was actively involved in identifying media and entertainment business opportunities during 2005 for Thomson..

Prior to that he was Executive Vice President, Worldwide Manufacturing Development, at Technicolor Home Entertainment Services. He was providing leadership in the areas of global manufacturing, outsourcing and business growth strategies.

Ram has extensive experience in setting up large pre-recorded optical disc (all formats) manufacturing operations and set up for Panasonic Disc Services Corporation, Technicolor Optical Media Services, Disc Manufacturing Inc. and Laser Video Inc. In addition to establishing & managing 'state of the art' manufacturing facilities, Ram successfully completed joint ventures with Kodak and Universal Music Services for Panasonic Disc Services Corporation.

Ram graduated from Osmania University (Hyderabad) with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering and holds an M.S. degree in Industrial Operations from Purdue University (Indiana) USA.